

The Friends of the North Versailles Public Library is a non-profit organization that believes a strong library is vital to our community.

Becoming a member of the Friends is easy!

As a Friends' member you can choose your own level of involvement. You can be an active member attending quarterly meetings, participating in fundraisers or helping at various library events. Or you may prefer to support the library through membership dues alone. Whichever you choose, your involvement is important to the library and the community.
